Manager Boido Resigns When Mexican Labor Leader Orders Him to Support Hunt or Lose Sonora Aid

ALFONSO ROVALO GETS IN SOME COARSE WORK; TRIES TO INTIMIDATE DR. BOIDO

Secretary Leroy Ladd Declines in Behalf of the Governor to Take Steps to Keep Race Out of Politics; Governor Is Away

DICTOPHONE PUTS ROVALO ON RECORD

"Evidence All in Hands of Governor's Enemies" Is "I-Should-Worry" Attitude of Ladd; Shaughnessy Has Hopes for Contest

International politics of a new sort have entered into the negotiations for the proposed international motorcycle race, and in being revealed, jeopardized that extraordinary competition.

Coarse work on the part of Alfonso Rovalo, who calls himself an emissary of Governor Adolfo de la Huerta of Sonora, resulted in uncovering a monstrous intrigue, involving the democratic fight now fighting for control of the party in Arizona.

Dr. Lorenzo Boido, superintendent of the race for the state fair commission has been caused to resign.

His act followed Rovalo's declaration to the doctor that unless he turned out, deserting the Olney forces, and worked personally and through his campaign paper "Justicia" (published in Spanish) to renounce Governor Hunt, the race would be distinctly "off."

The proposal was boldly, crudely delivered. It amounted practically to blackmail, and Rovalo, possibly inadvertently informed the doctor that he had just come from a two hours conference with the governor.

In order to forestall incredulity at the amazing effrontery of Rovalo, Dr. Boido called in Sheriff Jeff Adams and Deputy Jim Murphy, installed a dictophone in his office, and laid for Rovalo. Murphy, he introduced as a partner in the racing venture, and asked the Mexican to repeat his proposal. The sheriff and a stenographer sat in an adjoining room, with audiotapes to their ears, and even a large contribution to the purse, if he would forswear allegiance to Olney and throw his influence with Mexican-American citizens to the governor.

Later, Rovalo seemed to regret this step, and upon learning that his offers had been put down by a stenographer, reproached the doctor for having treated him in a dishonorable manner. The latter's reply was that when a man is threatened in his own home, the threatener need not complain of the methods of the threatened, and that before Rovalo attempted to single in Arizona politics, he had better try to straighten out some of the muddled affairs of his own native land.

Rovalo is a labor agitator of Sonora. He was a visitor in Phoenix during the Clifton strike, and was interviewed at length on that affair by The Republican. Of late he has been carrying messages between labor leaders of Mexico to Samuel Gompers and heads of the movement in Chicago. He also declared he carried messages between Governor Hunt and Mr. Gompers.

Secretary Shaughnessy of the state fair commission, has not yet acted on the resignation of Dr. Boido. In conference with the doctor and others interested in the race, he expressed a hope that the race might yet be pulled out of the fire. He was told by Dr. Boido that the race must proceed if humanly possible, that he was willing to step out, if his political activity in behalf of Olney had prejudiced the contest.

Rovalo's proposition was conveyed to Murphy and Boido in English, and is a fine sample of unpolished brasserie in previous conversations. Rovalo let it be known he believed himself pretty subtle, and an expert in politics, but his conversation as it appears in cold type, shows precious little finesse.

In full, it is:

OFFICE OF DR. LORENZO BOIDO

September 1, 1916, 6:00 p. m.

Mr. Rovalo: You say you are in the automobile business and some racing?

Mr. Murphy: Yes, I have been following the business for the last eight or nine years and have been rather successful.

Mr. Rovalo: I told Dr. Boido—some information—to make arrangements for a race from Hermosillo to Phoenix, and order to get that permission for Dr. Boido, it will be nothing for Dr. Boido to try and get the Mexican people in the state of Arizona to have Governor Hunt re-elected.

Mr. Murphy: In other words, you want Dr. Boido to work for Governor Hunt?

Mr. Rovalo: Yes, work for Hunt.

Mr. Murphy: Why?

Mr. Rovalo: And if you don't work for Hunt, there will be no race—but otherwise, the state of Sonora will actually help him.

Mr. Murphy: Will the governor do that?

Mr. Rovalo: Why certainly.

Mr. Murphy: Are you acquainted with the governor of Sonora?

Mr. Rovalo: In every respect: I came direct from him.

Mr. Murphy: What position do you hold in Mexico now?

Mr. Rovalo: I am very close to the governor, being his confidential agent in Mexico City, connected with the government of Carranza, when he was appointed governor of the state of Sonora I came with him. As a matter of fact, I helped answer all the correspondence of the government.

Mr. Murphy: I want to know if you will put that in black and white?

Mr. Rovalo: If necessary Governor de la Huerta will agree to that.

Mr. Murphy: You are asking a whole lot, to ask me and Dr. Boido to work for Governor Hunt.

Mr. Rovalo: You know that it is the policy of a man who works for the Mexican people, and you know that Mr. Hunt has done so, and it is the duty of the Mexicans to work for Hunt.

Mr. Murphy: Don't you think that Governor Hunt has been unfair to the Mexicans?

Mr. Rovalo: No, sir.

Dr. Boido: What do you think of the 50 per cent law? Do you know what that means to the Mexican people of this city?

Mr. Rovalo: Well, you know the governor here helps the Mexicans and that what we are doing in Mexico is to have Mexico for Mexicans, and what Governor Hunt and the 50 per cent law has done here is in favor of the Mexican people in this city.

Dr. Boido: What do you know of the supreme court of the United States having stricken out the 50 per cent law as not constitutional—that is what the supreme court of the United States has done.

Mr. Rovalo: The supreme court of the United States is wrong, because this country and the government is for its citizens, just like it is in Mexico. When the last strike came and the Carranza Copper company closed up the mines, the Americans left and came over to this state and then the Mexicans there were put to work, and run all of the work, and they did beautifully, just as well as the mine was before, and you see that that is a benefit for the Mexicans in their country.

Mr. Murphy: Now, here is the whole thing in a nutshell, to go back to my question, you state—that if we, Dr. Boido and I, support Hunt's election then we would have the international road race between Hermosillo and Phoenix for the fair—not only the permission, but the co-operation also.

Mr. Rovalo: Yes, the co-operation also; but you must support Governor Hunt, and then you will have the permission for the international road race.

Mr. Murphy: And if I don't help Hunt?

Mr. Rovalo: Nothing doing!

Mr. Murphy: Nothing doing.

Mr. Murphy: If we agree with your proposition, all we have is your word.

Mr. Rovalo: You have got it.

Mr. Murphy: Your word may be as good as gold, but you are a perfect

Mr. Rovalo: Immediately I will wire to Governor de la Huerta.

Dr. Boido: You get Governor de la Huerta to send me a telegram that you are his emissary here—that is all Mr. Murphy and I want.

Mr. Rovalo: I am not fooling—and, of course—I will be perfectly plain with you—and you are perfectly right to speak that way, as being strangers.

Mr. Murphy: I don't want to be harsh about this.

Mr. Rovalo: It is a business proposition and of course you don't believe everyone that comes to tell you about it.

Mr. Murphy: Well, you can give us a written statement that you agree to permit this race under that condition?

Mr. Rovalo: Well, you are asking something that is pretty hard to give.

Dr. Boido: It is only a business deal.

Mr. Rovalo: Now suppose you were in my place and you were as close to the governor of Sonora as I am—would you do this?

Dr. Boido: Well, if it was me, I would agree to stick to my proposition.

Mr. Murphy: This is a business proposition between you and I and I don't think there is anything wrong in it.

Mr. Rovalo: Governor de la Huerta will tell you just like I do. He is going to tell you, if you help us in this fight, he will be willing to give you permission to hold the international race.

Mr. Murphy: Will you put that in writing?

Mr. Rovalo: Why certainly—but I think Mr. de la Huerta will write to this effect himself.

Dr. Boido: Why don't you wait until Mr. de la Huerta sends that to us?

Mr. Murphy: It don't make any difference to me—just so we get a full understanding and get this in writing, so that when the race comes up there will be no back-draw.

Mr. Murphy: He (Dr. Boido) has not money invested in a newspaper and I know that he can defeat Governor Hunt if he wants to amongst the Mexican population.

Mr. Rovalo: I think that is fine, if he will help Governor Hunt.

Mr. Murphy: I am awfully sorry that politics had to be practiced here, but of course a man has got to do the best he can.

Mr. Rovalo: In two days more I am going to Nogales, and if you want to, you can come along—if Dr. Boido wants to also—he can come along and here I can have a telegraphic conversation with Governor de la Huerta to Hermosillo, and he will tell you exactly as I know.

Dr. Boido: Now, Mr. Rovalo, I told Mr. Murphy here that you answered his first letter that I wrote to Governor de la Huerta, in regard to this international road race.

Mr. Rovalo: Yes, yes; I answered all the correspondence of Governor de la Huerta for about 15 days until another secretary came from Mexico City, then I came here—then I came to Washington, Kansas City and Chicago.

Dr. Boido: Well, is there anything else you have to say, Mr. Murphy?

Mr. Murphy: Why, yes; I was thinking, I don't want to write anything until I know what we are to do, and to give me a written agreement.

Dr. Boido: I have right here on my desk, pen and ink and you, Mr. Rovalo, can write that you want.

Mr. Rovalo: I will.

Mr. Murphy: If you will do that, Dr. Boido, you dictate to him, as you can dictate better than I can.

Mr. Rovalo: I left the state of Sonora as a representative of the labor unions of the state of Sonora and I went to the American Federation of Labor and I delivered a letter to Governor de la Huerta and Governor de la Huerta gave me another letter to give to Governor Hunt and I came in yesterday morning and at 10:30 I gave a letter to Governor Hunt. I gave that letter to Mr. Hunt, so you see I am here on three different missions, to represent the Mexican people in their organized labor unions, to give a letter to Governor de la Huerta and to deliver a letter to Governor Hunt.

Mr. Rovalo: It is up to me to go tomorrow to Nogales, gentlemen, I am going to give you a chance to go direct to Governor de la Huerta and will furnish you a pass on the railroad to go direct to see the governor of Sonora, Mexico, and make final settlement with him in regards to permissions for the international road race between Hermosillo and Phoenix, provided you lend your support and influences for Governor Hunt's re-election for governor of Arizona.

Mr. Murphy: I hope you are satisfied.

Mr. Rovalo: I am perfectly sure you will have no trouble in that direction. The race will be settled, if you stick to your agreement.

BOSTON, Sept. 3.—Johnny Evers, captain and second baseman of the Boston Braves, is out of baseball for the remainder of the season, Manager Stallings announced.

In a conference on the International Road race situation yesterday, Leroy A. Ladd, secretary to Governor Hunt, said that he was sure that the governor would aid the race.
